

Henry Moore Exhibitions - Detailed Report

17 July 1968 - 22 September 1968

Venues

TATEGALLERY

Exhibition Title

1968 London, Tate Gallery, Henry Moore

More Information

An exhibition organised by the Arts Council of Great Britain to mark Moore's 70th birthday. It featured 144 Sculptures (1922-1968) and 73 Drawings (1921-1961). At Moore's request, David Sylvester selected the works for the exhibition and edited the extensive catalogue, and the exhibition was installed by David Sylvester and Joanna Drew.

Exhibition Info

Retrospective exhibition of sculptures and drawings organised by the Arts Council of Great Britain and held at the Tate Gallery in honour of Moore's 70th birthday.