

The Banqueting Hall with Penelope on the Balcony

Catalogue Number

HMF 2290 verso

Artwork Type

Drawing

Date

c.1944

Dimensions

paper: 210 x 165 mm

Medium

pencil, wax crayon, watercolour wash

Signature

(added later, misdated) pencil l.r. Moore/45

Inscriptions

pencil u.c. (8); The Banqueting (sic) Hall with Penelope on the /Balcony talking to the suitors/Penelope robed in the grey of winter, /Stoned Hall - pillars down both sides of Hall -/The Balcony too has pillars/Penel (crossed out) In the Hall the suitors have all been upset/by Eumaes (sic) bringing in Odysseus as an old man, & Antinous/has just thrown his stool at Odysseus's bent back

Ownership

private collection, UK

More Information

The Rescue Sketchbook p.45.