

Henry Moore Artwork Catalogue - Detailed Report

Dear Sir, ~~I have received your letter your~~ letter was sent to my address & ~~your letter was sent to~~ an old address that has only just reached me.

~~I~~ Thank you for your letter of May ~~(last week) I was very~~ I am ~~not~~ very pleased to be asked by you to give the four lectures on Sculpture at the Senate in 1932-3. but I am writing to ask if you can wait one week for me to come to London and give my answer. I have not yet received your letter but I have written to you about it. I can spare time for the lectures. I should be pleased to illustrate the lectures if I should be permitted to do so. I am yours faithfully,
Henry Moore
